Ein erster Eindruck

Elegant early 20th century building in the center of town completely renovated in 2017. The intervention involved the structural part of the floors (originally wooden) and the roof; the plant engineering with installation of the latest generation products and finishes, bringing the property to have the characteristics of a modern and current home. From the front door there is access to the comfortable living room, followed by the eat-in kitchen . Continuing are the stairs leading to the mezzanine floor corridor where there are the two bathrooms, one of which is equipped as a laundry room, and a first bedroom. The second flight of stairs leads to the first floor, which features a large master bedroom equipped with a small balcony and a second large bedroom. Continuing up the stairs leads to the spacious panoramic terrace above the mezzanine level that enjoys a unique view of the plains and mountains to the west. On the top floor a habitable attic occupies the entire perimeter of the house, very bright thanks to the presence of windows is complete with all amenities. Outside, on the other hand, there is access to the practical garage with attached ancient stone cellar.
