Alles zum Standort

Playa San Juan is a small, very popular village on the southwest coast of Tenerife and belongs to the municipality of Guia de Isora. The beautiful, wave-protected sandy beach is located directly at the charming little fishing boat harbor. The promenade leads past small cafes, restaurants and various shops. A supermarket is also located in the center of the village. Surrounded by banana plantations and large flower fincas, Playa San Juan is the best choice for those looking for relaxation and tranquility. There are many holiday homes, but also many people who chose Playa San Juan as their first residence. The village offers a school and a good bus connection to reach the next larger towns quickly.
