All about the location

Friedrichshain, probably the most popular district in East Berlin, exudes an alternative and unconventional charm. It has a good infrastructure and direct connections to Berlin city center as well as to the surrounding districts and the Berlin suburbs. The U5 subway line with its "Weberwiese" subway station approx. 300m away and the Ostbahnhof (approx. 750m away) offer good local and long-distance transport connections. Attractive shopping facilities can be found in the neighborhood. Daycare centers, schools, cinemas and theaters as well as the well-known Boxhagener Platz are also within walking distance. In the Friedrichshain district, there are numerous cafés, individual stores and almost all options for meeting daily needs. With numerous green spaces, trees, shrubs and benches as well as the rose garden in Karl-Marx-Allee, the surrounding area offers beautiful opportunities for walking and relaxing.
