All about the location

The property is located in a rural and forested village environment favoured with many walking and horse-riding trails on the French side only 500m from Rodersdorf and the Swiss border. The area is noted for clean air, peaceful country living and extensive equestrian facilities. The property, originally built in 1780, presents itself as an exclusive country estate in a park-like garden. With proximity to Basel (distance 14km; 20 minutes drive and 35 minutes by local tram), this exclusive country villa combines the advantages of a peaceful natural retreat with easy access to the university and cultural city of Basel.
