A first impression

Detached villa on the water surrounded by greenery with a beautiful garden and a double garage with guest house. The house has a beautiful secluded location in a water-rich environment near the Amsterdamse Bos. The beautiful garden has been landscaped under architecture with a natural water feature and offers a lot of privacy. In 2002/2003 the villa was extensively renovated and expanded.

Details of amenities

Entrance with a spacious hall with loft and marble floor. The living room is divided into 2 levels with the dining room at the front and a cozy sitting area in the middle with a gas-burning fireplace. Behind it is a bright conservatory of 25 m<sup>2</sup> with several French doors to the garden. Under the conservatory is a cellar for storage of wine, among other things. The half-open kitchen with built-in appliances has a dining area and overlooks the garden.

At the front is another spacious room with a private bathroom. This can be used as a practice room or work/study room, but it is also suitable as a bedroom/guest room for a live-in nanny.

On the first floor there are: a landing with a mezzanine, the master bedroom is located at the rear and has a spacious modern bathroom (corner bath, shower, washbasin, toilet) and closet room. The bedrooms on either side of the villa both have their own bathroom. In the garden is a spacious double garage with guest house and shower / toilet (2007).
