A first impression

Located in the middle of the majestic Vondelpark, we offer you rented upstairs apartment (301m²) in the former rectory of the Vondelkerk. This unique property breathes history and charm, with many authentic features still present, such as breathtaking high ceilings and various other monumental details. Unique is the continuous balcony of the 108-B across the entire width of the facade on five heavy stone consoles with volutes. The balcony was completely renovated in 2022 where all historic elements were also restored. The house was designed by architect P.J.H. Cuypers in eclectic style and is a National Monument, with both a front and back garden contributing to the exclusivity of this beautiful residence.
