A first impression

Experience unparalleled luxury on the Prinsengracht, where every convenience is within walking distance! No expense has been spared in crafting this elegant and sophisticated apartment. Spanning 192 m², this high-quality, turn-key renovated residence was originally built in 1690 and boasts a storied history. Notably, this building, numbered 42, was once part of KLM's house collection and served as the first Ford garage in the Netherlands from 1912 to 1925, with its rich heritage evident throughout this historic canal house.

Details of amenities

Layout:

Upon entering, you'll find a welcoming cloakroom with space for bicycles, featuring heating, an insulated ceiling, and smart foil integrated into the facade window. With a simple touch, the glass transforms into frosted glass, ensuring complete privacy.

The ground floor introduces a beautifully designed living space where textures and materials harmoniously blend. The expansive dining area boasts custom-built cupboards, herringbone parquet flooring, and luxurious recessed dimmable spotlights. The central kitchen features a marble countertop and top-of-the-line Siemens appliances, including a steam oven, coffee machine, wine climate cupboard, dishwasher, oven, and refrigerator with a separate freezer. The extractor hood is cleverly integrated into a striking copper-colored lamp above the cooking area.

The cozy, spacious living room at the rear of the apartment offers a remarkable ceiling height of 3.15 meters, skylights with impact-resistant glass, and oak paneling that extends to the shelves along the walls. All rooms on this floor open onto a bright 15 m² patio, which seamlessly extends the kitchen space during the summer months.

First Floor:

At the rear, discover a beautiful bedroom with a generous walk-in closet. The hallway, featuring exposed beams, leads to a luxurious bathroom complete with a double shower, sink, and bath, alongside a separate toilet. The bathroom tiles are from Marazzi, with taps and showerheads by Hansgrohe Axor.

At the front of the apartment, a spacious bedroom can easily be divided into two separate rooms. This bedroom includes an en-suite bathroom with a shower, toilet, and sink. Adjacent to this room is a third room currently used as a dressing area with fitted wardrobes, which can also serve as a study. The closet with washing and dryer connections is conveniently located in this room.
