All about the location

Las Zocas is located within the municipality of San Miguel, is a tranquil and authentic village that offers the perfect balance between rural charm and proximity to tourist facilities. It is a wonderful option for those seeking to experience the real Tenerife while also enjoying easy access to popular coastal towns and recreational activities. The village is nestled in a picturesque environment with stunning views of the surrounding mountains and the Atlantic Ocean. Its narrow cobbled streets lined with whitewashed houses give it an authentic and inviting character. Here, you can embrace the relaxed atmosphere of rural Tenerife and immerse yourself in island life. Despite its peaceful location, Aldea Blanca provides good connections to nearby tourist destinations such as Los Cristianos and Playa de las Américas. There are also various amenities in the vicinity, including shops, restaurants, and bars, catering to the needs of both locals and visitors. The surrounding area of Aldea Blanca is ideal for outdoor activities and nature lovers, with numerous hiking opportunities available. The nearby Golf del Sur golf course offers golf enthusiasts a premier facility for playing their favorite sport.
