All about the location

Porreres is located off the main road between Palma and Manacor. Its idyllic, tranquil surroundings are still the center of apricot cultivation in Mallorca. But the Porreres region also focuses on quality when it comes to wine growing. Numerous fine grape varieties can be found here, which were first cultivated in the 1970s. Winegrower Jaume Mesquida's winery is known far beyond the borders of Porreres. The town is home to numerous historical buildings from past centuries, such as the "Iglesia de Sant Felip Neri" church, the Museum of Contemporary Art and the "Plaza de Toros" bullring. The popular weekly market takes place in Porreres on Tuesdays. Celebrations include the big town festival "Fira de Tardor" in October.
