A first impression

This townhouse in need of renovation with building license is located in Lluçmajor, situated in the southern part of the island. This historic house, originally built in 1900, offers you a fascinating potential for design and renovation to create a real gem. With a plot size of approx. 81 square meters and a living area of approx. 117 square meters, there are a total of three rooms, including two bedrooms and two bathrooms. The house is in shell condition, which gives you the unique opportunity to realize your personal ideas and wishes. The construction of the house is solid, which promises additional security and stability. A highlight that should not be underestimated is the spacious south-facing terrace, which is the ideal place to spend relaxing hours outdoors.
