A first impression

This country house project with building license in Algaida with a plot size of 30,232 square meters is located in a quiet area with lots of nature. The house offers a total of six rooms, five of which are bedrooms, all with private bathrooms. The living and dining area is generously cut and offers enough space for the whole family, including a cozy fireplace that provides cozy warmth on cooler days. The modern fitted kitchen is fully equipped and invites you to cook and eat together. There is also a terrace where you can enjoy the sun and the beautiful surroundings. An absolute highlight is the swimming pool, which provides refreshing cooling on warm days and invites you to relax. The property is perfect as a retreat from the hectic everyday life and offers the opportunity to enjoy the Mediterranean climate to the fullest. The finca has a water well with the license to drill another well. The property has a current building permit, so the work could start immediately. The house will be completely finished at this price.
