A first impression

Nestled within the ancient walls of Vicenza, just steps from the ZTL (Limited Traffic Zone), lies a jewel of incomparable beauty and historical significance: a prestigious apartment within the restored cloister of Contrà della Misericordia. This prestigious residence perfectly combines the charm of antiquity with modern comforts, creating an irresistible living experience. Living in this apartment means more than just having a place to stay: it means immersing yourself in the rich historic fabric of Vicenza while enjoying the comforts of modern life. The cloister, with its serene courtyards and elegant arches, offers a peaceful refuge from the hustle and bustle of daily life. Every corner of the residence resonates with stories of the past, offering a unique backdrop for creating your own memories.

All about the location

For those working at the nearby Ederle and Del Din military bases, this apartment offers a perfect combination of proximity and luxury. The residence is only 10 minutes away, which can also be traveled by bicycle, from the Del Din and Ederle bases. The residence located at the edge of the ZTL, allows Military personnel to return home without having to change first, as required by internal security regulations. This is a great convenience, taking into account that the historic center is within walking distance and allows one to leave home in the evening and experience the sparkling city life, with the trendiest clubs and restaurants, without having to use a car. The historic context of the property provides an enriching cultural experience, distinct from the typical urban landscape of modern cities, with the convenience of being close to work and experiencing a piece of Italian heritage making the experience of living in our country exceptionally attractive. Vicenza, known for its stunning architecture and vibrant culture, is a city that enchants its residents and visitors alike. Living in the cloister of Contrà della Misericordia not only offers a luxurious lifestyle, but also places you in the heart of a city rich in art, history, and Italian charm.
