It has west orientation and is front line golf, the golf of "El Paraiso". It is situated in the new "Golden Mile", in the municipality of Estepona, the town that has preserved its traditional Spanish character and the atmosphere of this mediterranean area. On the other hand it is only a 10 minute drive to Puerto Banús, the luxury marina and one of the most important in the world. This property sits on a plot of almost 3.000m², with 688m² living area, according to the land registry. The villa has a large driveway with space to park many cars. To access the master bedroom, with dressing room and en suite bathroom, one has to climb a couple of steps. Of the other bedrooms, two share a bathroom, one has an en-suite bathroom. The living room is very spacious, with a large fireplace, with a very high skirted ceiling. From the main living room (with four doors) there is access to the covered porch of approximately 55m², the garden and the swimming pool. For the children there is a tree house, taking advantage of the mature vegetation and beautiful trees. Directly next to the guest house is a barbecue area. The kitchen is also very spacious, directly next to it there is a laundry and utility room and right beside it one room for houseemployees. On the other side of the kitchen, there is access to the dining room. The villa has a separate guest flat with living room, bedroom and bathroom.
