A first impression

For sale is an attractive building plot in a very quiet neighborhood with an approved building project for single apartments or a detached house with large interior and exterior areas. If necessary, the surrounding land can be expanded. The house will be built according to the latest energy standards and still offers possibilities for customization in terms of planning. Due to the existing approved design, valuable time and planning efforts are saved. A rare opportunity for investors or private builders who wish to quickly realize their dream project.
