A first impression

This house, located above Cannigione, offers breathtaking, unobstructed views of the sparkling sea and the surrounding coastal landscape. Designed in the traditional Sardinian style, the property is currently in a raw state, offering an exceptional opportunity to customize and complete it according to one's wishes. The architecture of the house incorporates typical Sardinian building elements, such as natural stones and exposed wooden beams, giving the future home a rustic and authentic charm. The elevated location of the house allows a panoramic view that captivates from sunrise to sunset, giving a rare feeling of peace and serenity. A particularly interesting aspect of this project is the possibility of building a swimming pool, perfectly integrated into the natural environment, ideal for fully enjoying the Sardinian sun. In addition, there is an option to build an outbuilding, perfect as a guest house or a separate retreat. With its prime location and numerous customization possibilities, this house represents a unique opportunity to create an exclusive property with unparalleled sea views—a perfect place to enjoy the beauty of Sardinia and celebrate the Mediterranean lifestyle.
