A first impression

Escape the hustle and bustle of everyday life and discover a tranquil retreat in the picturesque countryside of Llubi. This spacious country house sits on a 28,403 m² plot and is surrounded by the tranquillity of charming Mediterranean fields adorned with ancient olive and carob trees. Made from natural materials such as wood and stone, the architecture of this modern finca blends seamlessly into its surroundings. Enter the impressive entrance area, which leads to an exclusive fitted kitchen with bar, while to the right is an impressive living/dining area with fireplace and a cozy reading corner. A separate guest wing with en-suite bathroom offers privacy and comfort. Upstairs you will find three further bedrooms, each with its own bathroom, the larger ones with access to private terraces. Outside, the 10 x 5.5 meter infinity pool and the spacious terraces invite you to relax on hot summer days. The adjoining pool house with chill-out area, outdoor kitchen and fire pit add to the charm. One of the highlights of this property is the carefully landscaped garden, which was designed by a renowned landscape architect in Mallorca. With its manicured lawns, tropical and Mediterranean flora, a hidden shower, Balinese beds and a generous fruit and vegetable garden with raised planters, the garden is a true oasis. A fire pit and seating area are located near the petanque court on the lower terrace, which is framed by an avenue of old olive trees that perfectly frame the panoramic views of the Serra de Tramuntana. The self-sufficient building has its own working well and a state-of-the-art solar system, which enables environmentally friendly living. With high-quality furnishings and luxurious comfort on two floors, the living space of the finca extends over approx. 322 m².
