A first impression

This exquisitely designed 1-bedroom apartment is located in a dreamlike residential complex directly on the banks of the picturesque Müggelsee lake. With high-quality fixtures and fittings and an idyllic location, this property is a real gem. The staircase is already inviting, with natural stone floors and special light sources setting charming accents. A practical elevator takes you comfortably to the 1st floor and the entrance to this exclusive residential unit. Upon entering the approx. 35 m² residential unit, the first-class parquet flooring catches the eye, creating a warm and inviting ambience. The approx. 23 m² living room pampers with floor-to-ceiling windows and offers space for living and sleeping, while a modern fitted kitchen is equipped with every refinement. The bathroom impresses with high-quality porcelain stoneware tiles and has a cozy bathtub for a relaxing wellness experience. Further amenities include a ceiling cooling system for hot summer days, which ensures a pleasant freshness, while the underfloor heating pampers you with cozy warmth in the colder months. A cellar room is available for your personal belongings and additional storage space. Sophisticated lighting technology also makes it possible to set special lighting accents in all rooms. Thanks to the direct location on Müggelsee, you can enjoy nature to the full, be it water sports, walks along the lake or relaxing in the residential complex's own garden. The excellent connections to Berlin city center and the proximity to numerous shopping facilities and restaurants make this residential complex the perfect place to enjoy life. Located directly on the banks of the Müggelsee lake in the sought-after villa suburb of Friedrichshagen, this unique, spacious site covers a total area of around 11,000 m² in an exclusive waterside location. Consisting of several buildings, this apartment building was completed around 2021 and today comprises 23 top-class apartments. Facing south, the heart of the property is the approx. 115 m wide waterfront for exclusive impressions. A private beach invites you to bathe and swim here. All about the location

Geography: Friedrichshagen, a place of longing for stressed city dwellers, is an old villa suburb on the north-western shore of Lake Müggelsee. Founded by the famous Prussian King Frederick II in 1753, this district lies on the eastern edge of Berlin and is considered the most attractive residential area in Köpenick. The area is a magnet for discerning people and artists who are looking for peace and quiet, the proximity of woods and water, but still don't want to miss the connection to the big city. Friedrichshagen has a population of around 19,064 in 2021. Location / traffic: Friedrichshagen is well connected in terms of transportation with its S-Bahn station on Berlin line S 3 (Spandau - Erkner) and the B1/B5 as well as the Berlin freeway ring (A100) can be reached quickly. Alexanderplatz can be reached within 40 minutes via these routes. The proximity to Berlin's BER airport is also significant. The town's main street is the popular Bölschestraße - it is ideal for strolling, shopping and dining in various restaurants and pubs. The surrounding villages in the direction of Rüdersdorf can be reached with the Schöneich streetcar (line 88). Line 60 takes you to Johannisthal and line 61 provides a connection between Friedrichshagen and Adlershof. Infrastructure: The infrastructure is very well developed, with a grammar school, schools, daycare centers, doctors, banks and plenty of shopping opportunities including organic markets, and there is also plenty of culture here. The popular shopping street Bölschestraße is a particular highlight and everyone's talking about it, with various stores, restaurants and cafés that invite you to take a stroll. A weekly market on the central market square also offers fresh products from the region. Economy: The Friedrichshagen waterworks is located on both sides of the Müggelsee dam. In addition to restaurants and cafés, there are numerous activities to satisfy the hunger for water sports of all kinds. Many sports clubs have their roots here and have a large number of members. Leisure / nature: Thanks to its direct location on the Großer Müggelsee lake, water sports enthusiasts can enjoy many opportunities for surfing, sailing, kiting and motor sports. A variety of art galleries and small and large painters hold openings and training sessions, and libraries organize language courses in the evenings. Friedrichshagen has always remained an artists' village alongside its many sportsmen and women.
