Une première impression

Nestled in the prestigious Agios Lazaros area of Mykonos, Villa Cliff stands as a beacon of opulence and modernity. This magnificent ultra-luxury villa, constructed in 2020, exudes elegance and sophistication in every detail of its design and offers a unique opportunity for discerning buyers. With a selling price of €5.5 million, this approximately 500m² villa boasts an expansive 2,000m² plot, offering privacy and breathtaking sunset views over the Aegean Sea. Villa Cliff epitomizes modern luxury living with its eight spacious bedrooms, each en-suite, ensuring comfort and privacy for residents and guests alike. The villa features a luxurious and well-appointed modern kitchen, indoor and outdoor dining areas, multiple outdoor lounge spaces, pergola-covered areas, and a private infinity swimming pool that commands sweeping sea views. The property's high aesthetics are further accentuated by creative artworks and rare accessories, creating an interior that is a sheer indulgence for those seeking refuge from the summer heat. Designed by one of Greece's most renowned architects, Villa Cliff seamlessly blends elegance and comfort while offering state-of-the-art facilities. With its prime location, just 4 km from the cosmopolitan Mykonos town and proximity to the famed Nammos and Psarou Beach, this villa offers the perfect combination of privacy and accessibility. The property is also equipped with a high-tech alarm system and outdoor cameras, ensuring utmost security for its occupants. Villa Cliff is more than just a residence; it's a Mykonian palace and a sanctuary of luxury that defines the essence of modern island living.
