Zoagli: a charming coastal village between Rapallo and Chiavari, located in the metropolitan city of Genoa, Liguria. With its 2,297 inhabitants, Zoagli may be one of the smallest municipalities in the region, but it is no less charming. The area's peaks include mountains such as Castello, Groppo, Zuccarello, Carmelo, and Anchetta. Zoagli is famous for its pedestrian cliffs and wooded nature trails that connect the town center to the hamlets and villages of the municipality. The beaches, the art of weaving, and the breathtaking sea views make Zoagli a coastal jewel to explore .
