The interiors boast high aesthetics with murals depicting the enchanting scenes of the Bosphorus, ceilings replicating the grandeur of the Dolmabahçe Palace, and cyan wreaths reminiscent of the columns of Hagia Sophia. The white marble floors sourced from Constantinople exude timeless elegance, complemented by 24-carat gold details and wreaths that add an opulent touch. The residence features two large bedrooms, a well-equipped kitchen with brand-name appliances, a bathroom, a guest toilet, and three balconies that offer breathtaking views. The internal staircase, furnished rooms, air conditioning, and solar water heater further enhance the living experience. A security system, underground storage, parking space, and aluminum windows with double glazing ensure both comfort and safety. Externally, Epoch Haven presents a terrace, a garden, and a pool, creating an oasis of tranquility. The frontal orientation allows for ample natural light, while the corner location adds a touch of exclusivity.
